UNIQUE BABY SHOWER KEEPSAKE GIFT

GET A SPECIAL GIFT IDEA FOR A
BABY SHOWERS AND MAKE THIS DAY MEMORABLE FOR
MOM AND BABY

After my first baby, I came up with this unique gift idea for baby showers. It's called a

A ScribbleBelly is a write-able stuffed animal to keep messages and signatures for mom and baby to cherish. For a baby shower, you could have everyone who attends write a message for baby or mom or just sign it. This will be a neat gift for the mom-to-be to receive and remember all who attended the shower and how many people care and love her and her baby.

Another idea is to give the ScribbleBelly to mom as a gift with no signatures on it yet. Tell her she can bring it to the hospital and then after baby is born, have visitors sign the ScribbleBelly. She and baby can then remember all who visited on that special day.

This is an example of what the ScribbleBelly would look like once signed.

The come in several different animals.

These ScribbleBellys are soft and can be loved by any baby or just placed on display to enjoy. Babies and toddlers might enjoy using them as a pillow or just a cuddle buddy.
